DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1-28 are pending.

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-8, drawn to an isolated mutant prohormone convertase I polypeptide comprising a missense mutation at residue Asn222 in the catalytic domain.

Group II, claim(s) 9-16, drawn to an isolated polynucleotide encoding a mutant prohormone convertase I polypeptide comprising a missense mutation at residue Asn222 in the catalytic domain.

Group III, claim(s) 17-28, drawn to a non-human animal which comprises a polynucleotide encoding a mutant prohormone convertase I polypeptide comprising a missense mutation at residue Asn222 in the catalytic domain.

The inventions listed as Groups I-III do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

A) The invention has no special technical feature that defined the contribution over the prior art, or

B) Unity of invention between different categories of inventions will only be found to exist if specific combinations of inventions are present. Those combinations include:

- 1) A product and a special process of manufacture of said product.
- 2) A product and a process of use of said product.
- 3) A product, a special process of manufacture of said product, and a process of use of said product.
- 4) A process and an apparatus specially designed to carry out said process.
- 5) A product, a special process of manufacture of said product, and an apparatus specially designed to carry out said process.

The allowed combinations do not include multiple products, multiple methods of using said products, and methods of making multiple products as claimed in the instant application, see MPEP § 1850.

Art Unit: 1632

Applicant's claims encompass multiple inventions and do not have a special technical feature which link the inventions one to the other, and lack unity of invention.

A) Claim 1 is drawn to an isolated mutant prohormone convertase 1 (PC1) polypeptide with a missense mutation in the catalytic domain. Canaff et al (Mol Cell Endo 156:1-6, 1999) disclose a PC1 with such a missense mutation in the catalytic domain (p. 2, col 2, par 2, lines 1-21). Therefore, the invention has no special technical feature that defined the contribution over the prior art.

B) The claims encompass multiple products: a protein; a polynucleotide, and an animal. As discussed above, multiple products are not one of the allowed combinations for unity of invention to exist. Therefore, because multiple products are claimed and this is not an allowed combination, the instant invention lacks unity.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
